

State of Israel
Ministry of Education
Science and Technology Administration

April 10, 2011

To whom it may concern

During the year of 2007, Athena fund has initiated a national program named "A laptop for each teacher in Israel" encouraged by the Israeli Prime Minister's office and the Israeli Ministry of Education. This program was facilitated as a partnership with the Union of teachers in Israel.

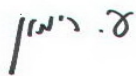

In the last three years, the program hand out over 6,000 free laptops to teachers in 160 communities. Each teacher was additionally entitled to enjoy free ICT training hosted and financed the Israeli Ministry of Education.

The Israeli Ministry of Education supports this program and would like to honor the Athena fund and the Union of teachers in Israel, for realizing the vision of teachers using laptops as a 21st century educational tool.

The Israeli Ministry of Education we'll proceed cooperation with Athena Fund regarding the "Laptop for each teacher in Israel" program as noted above.

Regards,

Dr. Ofer Rimon

Head of Science and Technology Administration,
Ministry of Education
Israel